We offer free legal help for filing guardianship petitions in probate court.

Legal Aid's Guardianship Legal Services Project provides free legal advice and assistance to grandparents, relatives, and others who are caring for someone else's children. You may call us for legal advice and representation.

We know being a caregiver can be very stressful. Let us help you with the legal questions!

Call (650) 558-0915 to be scheduled for a screening intake appointment.

The Guardianship Legal Services Project uses volunteer attorneys to answer your legal questions and to represent guardians in court.

The types of guardianship issues that we can help you with include:

- Do you qualify to become a minor's guardian?
- How long does it take?
- Do I have to go to court?
- Does the minor have to go to court?

The type of legal representation that we can provide you with include:

- Petition for the first time Guardianship
- Petition for Successor Guardianship
- Petition for Removal of Guardianship
- Defending a Termination of Guardianship
- Petition for Guardian of the Person and the State
